

News Release

TOM HARKIN OF IOWA

U.S. Senator

FOR PLANNING PURPOSES

January 7, 2003

Contact: Tricia Enright/ Bill Burton
202.224.3254

MEDIA ADVISORY**

MEMBERS OF CONGRESS TO PRESS
ADMINISTRATION TO FULFILL PROMISE TO LEAVE
NO CHILD BEHIND

Jack Reed

United States Senator from Rhode Island

320 Hart Senate Office Building • Washington, D.C. 20510 • (202) 224-4642
<http://reed.senate.gov>

FOR PLANNING PURPOSE
Tuesday, January 7, 2003

CONTACT: GREG MCCARTHY
(202) 224-3326

 MEDIA ADVISORY  MEDIA ADVISORY ***

Outdoor Press Conference to Urge Congress to Approve Full Funding for Heating Assistance Program

UNITED STATES SENATOR • MICHIGAN
DEBBIE STABENOW
PRESS RELEASE

United States Senate • Washington, D.C. 20510-2204 • (202) 224-4822

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Jan. 7, 2003

Contact: Dave Lemmon, Bob Meissner
Phone: 202-224-4822

NOTE: TIME CHANGED TO 10:15 A.M.

Sen. Debbie Stabenow Joins Rally by Parents of Autistic Children to Spotlight
Need to Repeal Special Interest Provisions of Homeland Security Bill

Stabenow, other members of Congress, join representatives of the Autism Autoimmunity Project, the Mercury Policy Project, and Safe Minds in call for repeal of provisions protecting Eli Lilly and Co. from lawsuits over the use of thimerosal.

WASHINGTON — U. S. Sen. Debbie Stabenow (D-MI) will take part in a rally in Upper Senate Park at 10:15 a.m. Wednesday, Jan. 8, as part of her effort to win repeal of special interest provisions in the Homeland Security bill intended to protect Eli Lilly and Co. from all lawsuits arising from the use of thimerosal.

The provisions were inserted in the U.S. House to protect drug maker Eli Lilly and Co. and other drug